

Niuean Language Week

By : Norman kane vaingalo

Create a Niuean Greetings Poster

Make a copy of this document and create your own poster that shows the different greetings and other phrases in the Niuean language.

Include how to say :

- Hello
- How are you?
- I am well
- What is your name?
- My name is...
- Yes
- No
- Thank you
- Goodbye

Link your poster here

Create a Niue Fact File

Niue Fact File

Population:

Around 1600 (2016)

Languages:

Niuean and English

Continent:

Oceania

Currency:

New Zealand Dollars

National Day:

Constitution Day, 19 October

Capital City:

Alofi

Flag:

Fun Facts

- More Niueans live in New Zealand than in Niue.
- Niue is the world's largest raised atoll (area = 261.5 sq. kilometres)
- Niue has no rivers or lakes.

Make a copy of this document and create your own Fijian Fact File Poster. Your poster must include the following information :

- Population
- Capital City
- A map with Niue labelled
- Languages spoken in Niue
- Official languages
- Continent Niue is in
- Currency
- Religions in Niue
- Famous Niuean people
- The flag of Niue
- The climate of Niue

Link your poster here

Insert a photo of yourself waving at the camera.

Make your speech bubble say hello and what your name is.

Use this information to help you.

Fakaalofa lahi atu! This week is Niuean Language Week. Our task was to create a two different posters to do with the Niuean language and culture and practice introducing ourselves. The first was a poster with phrases and greetings in Niuean language. The second was a fact file with different information about Niue. On the last slide I have introduced myself in Niuean. I have learnt that Koe kia means Goodbye. I have also learnt that Niuean Population is 1'935
I did well at my blog
I need to improve on speaking the niue
I enjoyed this task because I got to learn about Niuean Language Week

Photo of you waving